GOT HIM

SMOKED OUT: Anjem Choudary and Mohammed Mizanur Rahman (right), had to take their venomous tirades outside after being banned by mosques

● East London death-cult hate preacher finally nailed by online oath

TWO men have been convicted of encouraging support for the banned terrorist organisation Islamic State in East London.

Anjem Choudary and Mohammed Mizanur Rahman were found guilty on July 28 following a trial at the Old Bailey.

Reporting restrictions were put in place in relation to these convictions – restrictions were lifted on Tuesday, 16 August.

Choudary, 49, of Hampton Road, Ilford and Rahman, 33, of North Circular Road, Palmers Green, were both found guilty of the following offence:

Between June 29 2014 and March 6 2015 [they] invited support for a proscribed terrorist organisation, namely ISIL, also known as ISIS or the Islamic State, contrary to section 12 Terrorism Act 2000.

Choudary and Rahman are believed to have been recruiters and radicalisers for over 20 years and have been closely associated with another proscribed organisation Al Muhajiroun (ALM). ALM is believed to be the driving force behind a number of people who later committed terrorist attacks – including the 7/7 bombers during which Choudary and Rahman contacted Mohammed Fachry, a convicted terrorist, in Indonesia – via Skype, text and phone – the pair pledged their allegiance to ISIS and its leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi. Fachry

“These men have stayed just within the law for many years, but there is no one within the counter terrorism world that has any doubts of the influence that they have had, the hate they have spread and the people that they have encouraged to join terrorist organisations...”

and Lee Rigby's murderers.

When ISIS announced in 2014 that an 'Islamic State' had been established, Choudary and Rahman were called to provide advice to Muslims in the UK and to pledge their support to ISIS.

At a meeting in a restaurant on the 2 July 2014, then published this oath online. Choudary and Rahman were arrested by officers from the Met's Counter Terrorism Command on September 25 2014.

Commander Dean Haydon, Head of the MPS Counter Terrorism Command said: “These men have stayed just within the law for many years, but there is no one within the counter terrorism world that has any doubts of the influence that they have had, the hate they have spread and the people that they have encouraged that they had stepped over the line and we could prove they supported ISIS. “During the course of the investigation, some 20 years worth of material has been assessed, including over 300 electronic devices containing 12.1 terabytes of data. Our international contacts ensured that we were able to obtain key evidence from the Indonesian authorities.

“This has been a significant prosecution in our fight against terrorism, but we need to work with communities to ensure [the offenders] are not replaced by others spreading hate. Communities defeat terrorism – we depend on information from the public, our eyes and ears in our efforts to keep us safe. The public should remain vigilant, he added, and report suspicious activity to the confidential Anti-Terrorist Hotline on 0800 789 321 (999 in an emergency).

Choudary and Rahman will be sentenced at the Old Bailey on September 6.

Revel in song and dance hits of the 1940s and '50s

SENSATIONAL new song and dance production That's Entertainment! will be at Southend's Cliffs Pavilion from August 24 to 28, and we have TWO pairs of tickets to give away.

That's Entertainment!, which celebrates the biggest hits of the 1940s and 50s including music by Lerner and Loewe, Rodgers and Hammerstein, as well as Irving Berlin and Cole Porter, is being joined on its UK tour by special guests at different venues.

At Cliffs Pavilion, The Overtones, the UK's number one vocal harmony group, will join the cast of West End singers and dancers.

The Overtones, who have just celebrated their fifth consecutive top 10 album, have achieved sell-out tours, sold more than a million albums and performed at major events and concerts. They are seen regularly on TV and performed at the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Concert.

With glorious costumes, sumptuous music and stunning dance routines, That's Entertainment! promises to wow audiences with toe tapping, feel-good entertainment.

For further information and tickets to see That's Entertainment! at Southend's Cliffs Pavilion, from August 24-28, call the box office on 01702 351135 or visit www.thecliffspavilion.co.uk.

FEEL-GOOD SHOW: That's Entertainment! is heading for Southend's Cliffs Pavilion

To win one of two pairs of tickets to That's Entertainment! at 8pm on Wednesday, August 24, answer the following question.

Q: That's Entertainment! celebrates the music of which decades?

A: 1940s and 1950s

B: 1960s and 1970s

C: 1980s and 1990s

To enter the competition telephone your answer - A, B or C - to 0901 307 1678 with your name, address, telephone number and email.

Alternatively text YATHATS (space) followed by A, B or C, and your name, full address and email to 63333.

Calls cost 50p per call plus your phone company's access charge.

Calls from mobiles will cost considerably more. Texts cost 50p plus your standard network rates.

If you do not wish to receive details on any other products or services, please text EXIT at the end of your message.

Hospice needs volunteers

Appeal for recruits to join loyal team who help and give support at shops

SAINT Francis Hospice has issued an urgent appeal for shop volunteers.

The charity is appealing to anyone with free time who can help from school-leavers to those who have retired.

Michelle Nicholls, associate director of retail at the East London-based hospice, said: "We currently have 15 shops and without the support of our loyal team of volunteers we wouldn't be able to do the work we do."

"Our volunteers serve customers, sort through donations, create window displays and pick items to sell on eBay or in our Amazon store. We couldn't keep going without them."

Sue Henwood, from Romford, who received a five-year award for volunteering at the shop's head office in Ashton Gate, said: "I am the eBay Queen. I do the listing and bidding and I love it."

"The eBaying is one of my hobbies so I was delighted to get a chance to do it for the hospice.

"It is so exciting seeing what an item sells for."

"Whatever volunteering role you choose, I guarantee it will be rewarding."

Saint Francis Hospice will provide all the necessary training and volunteers can give as much time as they like.

A hospice spokesman said: "People can volunteer anything from a couple of hours a fortnight to five full working days."

"Whatever they decide, the work is diverse. And you will be making a true difference to your local community."

Saint Francis Hospice employs 150 nurses, doctors and specialist healthcare staff who are supported by 800 volunteers.

They provide care and help to more than 4,000 people across Brentwood, Havering, Barking and Dagenham, and Redbridge.

Brett aims to be world champion

BRETT Smitheram from Chingford will battle it out against hundreds of Scrabble players for the dream accolade of World Scrabble Champion at the MSI World Championships.

Brett, who is an executive search consultant and a past national Scrabble champion, will take on the world's top players at the end of the month in Lille, France.

The wordsmith has also finished twice in the top eight of the world championships.

In 2012, Brett was world number one.

Brett said: "I've played Scrabble since I was 17 and found I was a natural – remembering words and more importantly, being able to unscramble anagrams."

"It's been a great experience, travelling the world to play, and nothing is more exciting than competing against the very best in the Mindsports Academy's World Scrabble Championship."

"I've been world number one and although I'm still the highest rated Brit in the world, I've dropped to number three, so have something to prove."

The prestigious event will see accomplished Scrabble players from around the world compete against each other for the games most sought after title.

With events in Catalan, English, French, German, Norwegian and Spanish, this year's championship is set to break all records.

The championship starts with the world youth Scrabble championship followed by the international world championship consisting of three divisions including the MSI World Pairs Championships.

Throughout the championships, players will compete in more than 24 rounds of Scrabble to qualify for seeded play-offs.

The eight top placed players will proceed to the play-offs and the ultimate champion will be announced on September 4.

Spectators will be able to follow all of the intense Scrabble action at the event or at home with a live broadcast including expert commentary throughout the tournament at www.MindSportsTV.com.

DANGER: Barry Coppock says recognise the risks of high blood pressure

Do you know the signs of a stroke?

A STROKE Association volunteer from Chingford, whose mother was affected by stroke, is urging residents to recognise the dangers of high blood pressure.

Barry Coppock has been providing free blood pressure testing and education about the risk factors of the condition.

Barry, who first got involved with the Stroke Association eight years ago, said: "I joined the charity because I wanted to do something meaningful."

"I thought it would be good to get involved with a voluntary organisation, after my mother experienced a number of strokes.

"People often think they're okay, they assume they'd know if they had high blood pressure, but it doesn't have any symptoms."

"The only way to confirm you have it is to have a quick, painless test."

Barry has been popping into various shops in Chingford to offer his services to customers.

During one of the drop-in sessions, one member of the public was advised to visit their GP after returning a high reading.

Uncontrolled blood pressure can, over time, lead to stroke, heart attack, heart failure, kidney damage and eye problems.

In 2014, more than 16,000 men in the UK died of stroke.

TESTIMONIALS of our Success

"Wonderful job from start to finish. No hassle from Joel when he first visited and brilliant installation, team working in hot conditions. Thank you so much, so happy with the job!"

Mrs Phillips

"Great job and a pleasant experience. Having had bad experiences with home improvement companies in the past it was a relief to deal with Dolphin. No pressure, no messing around, kept us informed at every stage and did a lovely job, our house looks so much better now"

Festival gets ready for Battle of the Bands

THE SUMMER of festivals gets a boost this Bank Holiday Monday with the free Roundhouse Music Festival in Central Park, Dagenham.

This event promises a great cockney knees up with headline act Chas and Dave, plus a rockin' good time with a number of tribute acts celebrating the rich musical history of the borough's iconic Roundhouse pub, which has played host to some of the world's most iconic rock bands.

Tribute bands this year include Genesis, Elton John and T.Rex, and the event will also host the final of the Roundhouse Battle of the Bands competition – featuring Into Horizon, Colina Pearl and local band The Unknown.

Councillor Saima Ashraf, deputy leader and cabinet member for community leadership and engagement, said: "This fun-filled family day out is sure to get the crowd singing along. And in the Battle of the Bands I wish The Unknown best of luck – they're the youngest contestants and all attend Sydney Russell School."

The event includes inflatables – including a rodeo – funfair rides and face painting.

There will also be a bar and a number of caterers, covering fish and chips, stir-fry, burgers and ice cream.

Roundhouse Music Festival takes place on Bank Holiday Monday 29 August, between 12 noon and 9pm.

More details are at lbbd.gov.uk/roundhouse

Freedom party

THE INDIAN flag was flown at the Town Hall on Monday 15 August as members of Barking and Dagenham's Indian community celebrated the country's 69th Independence Day celebrations.

There were dance performances and a massive cake as councillors and the Mayor celebrated the nation's freedom from colonial rule.

Councillor Sade Bright, cabinet member for equalities and cohesion, said: "Our borough is enriched and enhanced by our residents of Indian heritage."

Redbridge shooting plea

TWO men have been arrested on suspicion of attempted murder following a shooting in Redbridge.

A 25-year-old man and a 22-year-old man were arrested on Friday, 12 August, and both have been bailed to return to an east London police station on a date in November.

They have recovered a white Seat car, but are still need information relating to the individual or individuals who were driving it.

They are also still looking to trace a second vehicle, described as a black BMW, which appeared to have the front number plate missing.

Police were originally called to Loxford Lane, Redbridge, at 16:30 on Monday 8 August to reports of a shooting.

A 22-year-old-man was taken to an east

London hospital suffering from injuries, believed to have been inflicted by a shotgun. He remains in hospital in a critical condition.

An 11-year-old boy, who was with his parents, suffered injuries when he was struck in the cheek by a stray pellet. He has since been discharged.

Neither the child nor his parents are thought to have been the intended victims.

Police want to speak to a black man of indeterminate age who was seen near the scene. He wore a dark baseball cap with a light peak, and a dark coloured top with a white or yellow emblem on the sleeve.

Anyone with information is urged to call police on 101 – or phone Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 if you wish to remain anonymous.

Sharp new i30 revealed by Hyundai

By Chris Russon

HYUNDAI has released teaser images of its new i30 hatchback which is due to have its world premiere prior to the Paris Motor Show in September.

The car, a rival to the Ford Focus, builds on the Korean company's new design theme created by styling chief Peter Schreyer and first seen on the larger Tucson SUV.

Schreyer says the car has been designed with European tastes in mind and will be built at the Hyundai factory in the Czech Republic.

"The new Generation i30 is a car for everybody," said Schreyer, who is now the president and chief design officer of Hyundai Motor Group.

"From a design perspective, we haven't just considered one customer; we have focused on a wide range of different people.

"This model showcases an evolution of Hyundai Motor's design language with natural flowing lines, refined surfaces and a sculpted body to create a timeless appearance.

"We are also introducing our further developed grille: the Cascading grille."

The current i30, which arrived in the UK four years ago, has proved to be a popular seller and has helped boost Hyundai's small car range which also includes the i10 city car.

Last year, Hyundai sales grew by more than three per cent in Britain and the company is close to selling 100,000 models a year putting it into the top 10 car brands.

The new model, which will be the third generation i30, will be revealed on September 7 in Germany before its public debut at the Paris show at the end of the month.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Publisher Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Some of these are:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and (b) no copy contains the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (c) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1989.
2. Classified Advertisements offering goods or services of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be accepted "Track Advertisements", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisements must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by stating, format, logo or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "batter", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "TT" etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full column. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
8. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for substitution or allowances.
9. All gross advertising rates (except classified listings and semi-displays) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
10. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
11. Should the rate for advertisements to exceed the price for remaining insertions shall be provided accordingly or the publisher shall have the right to cancel the unaccepted portion of an order.
12. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
13. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
14. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
15. (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
- (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
16. Where an advertiser instructs a separate advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of all advertising received should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
17. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
18. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers' control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
19. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
20. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers' design team remains with the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
21. Box Numbers: Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of hostile or defamatory matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement. i.e. Box No., contact address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than employment and business opportunities.
22. Airfreight & Travel Categories: All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
23. Data Protection: The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing orders.
24. Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Capital Media Newspapers Ltd or carefully selected third parties. Why, or they may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.
25. Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

HAMMERS HIT BY COSTA'S LATE STRIKE

Football

Chelsea 2-1 West Ham Premier League
By Brian Jeeves at Stamford Bridge

DIEGO Costa broke West Ham hearts, hitting a dramatic late winner after defender James Collins looked to have earned the Hammers an opening day point from this pulsating London derby.

West Ham manager Slaven Bilic threw something of a surprise by naming talismanic Frenchman, Dimitri Payet, among the substitutes.

Meanwhile, the Hammers chief went with record signing, Andre Ayew, in attack, with defender, Arthur Masuaku, also handed his full debut.

It was the Hammers who appeared the more comfortable in the early stages. Enner Valencia's free-kick was deflected, while Mark Noble fluffed his lines after wriggling clear.

Chelsea responded, but Hammers keeper Adrian did well to turn aside Branislav Ivanovic's low strike at the foot of a post.

Chelsea continued to appear disjointed and a little agitated as they struggled to find their feet.

Eden Hazard almost lifted spirits, sending an angled effort the wrong side of an upright after cutting in from the left, while Adrian did well to cling on to Willian's testing centre.

Soon after, Costa fired over as the home side came more into the contest.

Just before the break, Adrian was forced to tip over Willian's dipping dead-ball effort, while John Terry nodded wide from the corner.

Chelsea began the second period at a blistering rate. Adrian thwarted Costa with his feet, but as the Hammers attempted to clear, Michael Antonio felled Cesar Azpilicueta and Hazard sent the resulting spot-kick high into the net. Chelsea were now firmly in charge, launching wave after wave of attacks. Adrian expertly turned aside Willian's angled drive, while Terry was again too high after the Hammers gave him too much space inside the box.

Boss Bilic threw on Payet in a bid to offer more of a threat, but it was Chelsea who continued to look the more likely.

Payet offered West Ham some hope when his free-kick was repelled by the Blues wall. From the resulting corner, Collins became the unlikely hero, firing crisply beyond Courtois to level the score.

Pedro shot narrowly wide, while Costa was a whisker away from a telling contact with Ivanovic's delicious centre as Chelsea piled forward.

With time running out, the audacious Costa arrowed a right footed strike past the outstretched Adrian to win the contest.

Speaking after the game, a frustrated Bilic said: "When you lose a game and concede late, of course you are disappointed.

"Apart from the first 15 minutes, until we equalised they were much better than us. They had the individual class of Eden Hazard, Diego Costa and Willian."

"They were better on the ball, in pressing and much more aggressive than us."

He continued: "We came back into the game, but we made a mistake in the middle of the park and conceded a cheap goal."

Chelsea boss Antonio Conte said: "I'm delighted with the performance. There was great intensity and possession.

"We know we can improve, but tonight it was very important to start with a victory against a strong side like West Ham."

West Ham United are next in Barclays Premier League action on Sunday, August 21, when AFC Bournemouth visit the London Stadium (4pm).

Massey and Cox help O's bounce back

Football

Leyton Orient 3-0 Stevenage Sky Bet League Two
By Rowland Lyons at the Matchroom Stadium

ANDY Hessenthaler's men ensured an unhappy homecoming for Jobi McAnuff and Jamie Jones, as the O's got their season up and running with a comprehensive win on Tuesday night.

Gavin Massey's double was sandwiched Dean Cox's early candidate for goal of the season, as the O's made up for lost time.

Nicky Hunt and Nigel Atangana came in for the benched Sean Clohesy and skipper Robbie Weir after the disappointing Newport weekend home reverse. The most significant inclusion was striker Jay Simpson, back after nearly two weeks of transfer speculation.

The home goal lived a charmed life early on when McAnuff, who left Orient in the summer, was allowed too much time and space to find Ben Kennedy, who blazed over. Loanee Harry Cornick was then unlucky to see his drive blocked, but played a major part in Massey's 20th minute opener, when he hit the post after Jones had saved from Simpson. Following up, Massey bagged his second of the season from close range.

Stevenage should have been level seven minutes later, but McAnuff seemingly wanted to walk the ball home – allowing Alex Cisak to make an initial block – before Sandro Semedo's lunge denied Tom Conlon two yards out.

Orient were then denied by a Jones reflex save, a minute later, from a lively Simpson. Then good Massey approach play found Cornick and his cross to the edge of the penalty area found Cox, who netted with a gem of a diving header.

Jones's inconsistent display continued and, reminiscent of his Wembley gaffes in the 2014 play-off final – when the O's threw away a two-goal lead – he spilled Cornick's 45th minute cross, but Massey, following up, was denied by Ronnie Henry's block.

The O's kept up the pressure after the break with Kelly going close, before Jones presented his former team-mates another chance by spilling a routine Cox cross.

Stevenage tried to cut the deficit with McAnuff keen to prove a point but Cisak stood firm and did well late on to stop Matt Godden.

Massey made the points safe with the O's third on 75 minutes. Sub Jordan Bowery led the breakaway that saw his cross evade fellow sub Ollie Palmer, but Massey was on hand to blast home at the far post.

Hessenthaler admitted: "It was important to bounce back after last Saturday's defeat. But we did present Stevenage with a couple of early chances. But we had put ourselves under pressure from last weekend but I thought we deserved the win."

Stevenage boss Daryl Sarll added: "The goals changed the game. And, after our two really good early opportunities, Orient sped the play up and took control."

The O's Hunt said: "It was a massive win for us tonight. But the second goal was so important."

Cox and Atangana are injury worries, and Hessenthaler said: "We won't know until later in the week.

"But Dean's opened up his knee, that's why he came off, and Nigel suffered a shin injury, it's an impact one and the leg is badly bruised and swollen. Grimsby will be a tough place to go to this Saturday (kick-off 3pm), especially as they have just got promoted, and they will be up for it. We just have to make sure we go there and get a result."

Non-league round-up

Three out of four for Daggers

By Brian Jeeves

DAGENHAM & Redbridge made it three wins from four National League matches after a Luke Guttridge goal on Tuesday night earned the east Londoners a 1-0 win at home to Lincoln City.

The Daggers had made up for their midweek defeat at Chester, with a 2-0 success on Saturday at Guiseley AFC and now sit fourth in the table, three points behind early season leaders Tranmere Rovers.

Braintree Town are still searching for their first win of the National League campaign. Lee Barnard's late penalty proved to be of little consolation after goals from Danny Rowe, Chris Holroyd and Jack Sampson gave visitors Macclesfield Town a 3-1 success at Cressing Road.

In National League South, East Thurrock United continued their steady start to the season. Ben Marlow (penalty) and Joe Ellul helped the Rocks to a 2-1 win at Hampton & Richmond Borough. Jarnel Lowe pulled one back for the hosts. Elsewhere, Luke Wanadio fired Dartford into a second half lead at Chelmsford City, however, Shaun Jeffers earned the Clarets a point in front of a bumper 780 Melbourne Stadium crowd.

But it was a disappointing afternoon for Concord Rangers. The Beach Boys slipped to a 2-0 home defeat against Truro City. Andrew Neal and Aaron Pugh (penalty) giving the West Countrymen a 2-0 victory at the Aspect Arena.

Stalemate in the Ryman Premier League, with each of the region's teams' matches ending in 1-1 draws. Ryan O'Rawe must have believed he had given Canvey Island the points with a late goal at Enfield Town, only for the hosts to hit back in stoppage time to grab a share of the spoils.

Lheureux Menga was Grays Athletic's goal scorer at Leatherhead, while Billericay Town were held at New Lodge by Merstham.

Aveley were top scorers in Ryman League Division One North. Olumide Oluwatimilehin, Emmanuel Ighorae (2) and Michael Pindy (2) were on target in a 5-2 win over Ware at Mill Field. James Thomas and Thomas Hine earned Bowers & Pitsea a historic 2-0 victory at VCD Athletic in their first match at this level.

Haringey Borough saw off Dereham Town 3-0, Christopher Benjamin (2) and Anthony McDonald finding the net, while Matt Lock and Adam Mills helped Maldon & Tiptree to a 2-1 win over Brightlingsea Regent, Jack Clowsley with the visitors' response.

Tilbury and Thurrock drew 1-1 at Chadfields. Tobias Aromolaran on target for the hosts, Ronnie Winn for the visitors. Romford's match with AFC Hornchurch and Witham Town's clash at Soham Town Rangers ended goalless, while there were defeats for Heybridge Swifts, 2-1 at Thamesmead Town, and Great Wakering Rovers, who despite a Liam Nash goal, lost 3-1 to Norwich United at Burroughs Park.

Basildon United picked up their first Essex Senior League win of the season, seeing off Haringey & Waltham 4-0 at Gardiners Close.

Barkingside beat Barking by a single goal at the Cricklefield Stadium, while Eton Manor won 3-2 at struggling Burnham Ramblers.

Tower Hamlets picked up a notable 1-0 win at Waltham Forest and there was an entertaining 2-2 draw between West Essex and Redbridge.

The derby between Hullbridge Sports and Southend Manor at Lower Road was goalless.

Ilford travelled to Southend United's Boots & Laces training ground to face the Blues under-21 team in a hastily arranged friendly. Despite going down 3-0, Foxes boss Allan Fenn was upbeat about the experience.

"Although we lost 3-0, we took a lot of positives from the game, but our hosts ran out deserved winners", he said. "It was a great experience for my lads and I'd like to thank Southend United coach Kevin Maher the players and everyone at the Boots & Laces training ground for their warm and kind hospitality."
